

Marketing Internship Opportunity

The Wisconsin Philharmonic is seeking a college student intern to assist with marketing responsibilities at their office located in downtown Waukesha. The internship is an unpaid position but will provide the following benefits:

- Obtain real-world knowledge that merges academics with experience
- Generate Marketing credentials to enhance resume
- Receive value-added knowledge about non-profit organizations
- Gain access to leaders in our community for potential employment
- Opportunity to attend Wisconsin Philharmonic orchestra concerts free of charge
- Learn directly from business leaders about successful proven marketing skills

The Wisconsin Philharmonic mission is to enrich lives through exceptional musical experiences: performance, education and community partnership.

Students may apply for immediate placement, Spring, Summer or Fall.

To submit an application for the internship position, please complete the Internship Application found at www.wisphil.org and submit to the Wisconsin Philharmonic office. Applications can be e-mailed, snail mailed or delivered to:
