

Wisconsin Philharmonic

Waukesha County's premier orchestra since 1947

2023-2024 Season

"Starry Nights" FREE Outdoor Concert

Friday, 7/7/23 at 6:30 pm • Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for the Arts

Join us as we celebrate America with a magnificent summer journey of popular and patriotic classics! The perfect way to kick off your summer listening with family and friends.

"No Strings Attached":

Celebrating the Philharmonic Winds, Brass & Percussion

Thursday, 9/28/23 at 7:30 pm • Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for the Arts

Come join us as we start our regular season with a long-overdue tribute to the Wisconsin Philharmonic's treasured artists in its wind, brass and percussion sections -- some of Wisconsin's finest musicians!

"Romantic Milestones"

Friday, 10/27/23 at 7:30 pm • Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for the Arts

Wisconsin composer, William Neil, was commissioned to orchestrate a Rachmaninoff treasure: two early Suites for Two Pianos, now reborn as his "Symphony No. 0"! We welcome the young American pianist, Reed Tetzloff, as he makes his Waukesha debut performing Grieg's favorite piano concerto.

"A Royal Christmas"

Thursday, 11/30/23 at 7:30 pm • Oconomowoc Arts Center

It's high time we cycled back to the great British choral traditions for Christmas -- especially this year! So join our guest host John McGivern, the Waukesha Choral Union, and some of our finest high school choirs as the Philharmonic brings you a "Coronation Special"!

"Waukesha JanBoree Family Concert"

Sunday, 1/21/24 at 2:00 pm • St. Luke's Lutheran Church

The Philharmonic returns again to St. Luke's for its annual children's concert. With a JanBoree theme of "Extreme Winter Green", the afternoon will be filled with children's activities and a petting zoo beginning at 1pm, followed by a fun, children-centered concert.

"A Disney Spectacular"

Sunday, 3/10/24 at 2:30 pm • Sharon Lynne Wilson Center for the Arts

We welcome Spring with this perfect afternoon of beloved music from recent DISNEY favorites for the silver screen. Bring the young people in your life -- and those young at heart! -- to join us in a magical musical journey.

"Songs of the Prairie"

Thursday, 5/9/24 at 7:30 pm • Oconomowoc Arts Center

Antonin Dvorak returns to our stage with Cello Concerto in B Minor featuring Gabriel Cabezas, an internationally-acclaimed young artist on the cello scene. Lake Country's own rising star, Jacob Beranek also makes a welcome return. In the patriotic spirit we'll enjoy the music of Aaron Copland as edited and arranged by our Maestro, ending our season in magnificent style!

www.WisPhil.org • 262-547-1858